ABSTRACT

This guide describes where specific skills are emphasized in the three reading texts (published by Ginn, Holt, and Lyons and Carnhan) used in the intermediate grades in the Stoneham (Massachusetts) Public School System. The four major sections of the book are color-coded and include phonetic and structural analysis, vocabulary development, study skills, and comprehension and thinking skills. Literary plots, settings, and grammar lessons have not been included in this book. The specific skills listed include knowing consonants, word endings, suffixes, consonant blends, short and long vowels, root words, compound words, word meaning, synonyms, and acronyms; illustrating the main idea; problem solving; categorizing; recognizing tone and feelings of story and characters; reacting personally to story tone and feeling; drawing conclusions; knowing fact from opinion; and using dictionaries, catalogues, and encyclopedias. RESOURCE BOOK FOR INTERMEDIATE GRADES

This book is a guide to help determine where specific skills are taught in the three reading texts used in the intermediate grades.

Only major skills are listed. Vocabulary development is not included with each story for it is naturally taught with each story. Literary plots, settings, etc. have not been included in this book. Grammar lessons were also omitted. Only skills which are listed on the profile sheet have been cross referenced. In this book homophone and homonym have been considered the same skill.

Please feel free to make corrections, or notations of any type. This book is for your use.

Pages listed refer to teacher's editions of books.

No part of this book may be reproduced without permission of the Stoneham Public School Department
